Dearest Henri

I have written letters of admiration and appreciation to you many times over the years, but this is a special letter. George and I were so moved and so touched by the Concert at Wilkey High School Thursday. In addition to the fact that you had dedicated it in memory of Jerry which was beautiful, the sensitivity with which you handled the programming and the little informative talks moved us to tears. For an hour these children forgot their severe handicaps and were laughing and smiling and tapping out the best of - of all things, Classical music.

You have brought so much pleasure to educated adults over the years, but to see you in this setting was an experience we shall never forget.

The lunch together was delightful and just what we needed to change the mood. One cannot stand too long a time with such deep emotion, as we have unfortunately barred. Many thanks to you and Cunny for being such dear and loyal friends through good times and bad. We count on you.

I am enclosing two checks because we each wanted to write one. I will write and call everyone I think can help reinstate funds for the continuation of the Concerts for youth. It's a unique and beautiful series and a true labor of love.

Much love
Janet

Dearest Henri

I have written letters of admiration and appreciation to you many times over the years but this is a special letter. George and I were so moved and so touched by the Concert at Widney High School Thursday. In addition to the fact that you had dedicated it in memory of Gerry which was beautiful, the sensitivity and the little informative talks moved us to tears. For an hour those children forgot their severe handicaps and were laughing and smiling and tapping out the beat of – of all things, classical music.

You have brought so much pleasure to educated adults over the years, but to see you in this setting was an experience we shall never forget.

with such deep emotion, as we have unfortunately borned. Many thanks to you and Emmy for being such dear and loyal friends through good times and bad. We count on you.

I am enclosing two checks because we each wanted to write one. I will write and call everyone I think can help reinstate funds for the continuation of the Concerts for Youth. It's a unique and beautiful series and a true labor of love.

Much love
Janet
